section:

Statement of Policy on Intelligence Activities

Sec. 5. Section 102(a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961 (22 U.S.C. 2151(a)) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"It is further the sense of Congress that any United States Government agency which is involved in gathering or analyzing intelligence information concerning foreign countries should refrain from performing any covert or similar activity which intervenes in the internal political, military, or economic affairs of any foreign country without the prior consent of the government of such country."

Renumber the following sections accordingly.
